DAWNING OF GOOD THINGS FOR THE CITY OF CLOVERPORT.

Enthusiastic Councilmen Are Taking The Interests Of The Town Seriously And Are Making Efforts To Get Fire Protection And Other Conveniences.

COMMITTEE EXAMINES ENGINES.

Thursday Cloverport sent a committee of men to New Harmony and Howell, Ind., to inspect fire engines with a view of buying one for this city. Those who went were the following members of the council: L. T. Reid, Chas. Hook, Henry Yeager, Henry Solbrig, Marshal DeHaven, Wick DeHaven and Will Pate also went. They will make a report at the next meeting of the City Council and there is a great promise for a real fire protection for this place.

Marshal DeHaven says the councilmen are very strong for the engine and are determined to get one for the town. Cloverport now has the best show it has ever had for water works and a fire department and all the citizens are anxious that the plans will not fail.

WHO SAID CLOVERPORT WOULD NOT HAVE ICE?

Ten Ton Machine Ordered by Cloverport Ice Co., and Will be Installed in the Ice Plant at Once.

GOOD COMPANY ORGANIZED.

Saturday the Cloverport Ice Company was organized in this city with the following officers: J. A. Barry, president and general manager; Dr. Simons, vice-president; H. A. Oelze, treasurer; Marion Weatherholt, secretary. The board of directors include the same men and Ed Whitehead.

The company has ordered machinery and it will be installed at once in the ice plant on Second street in Breckenridge Addition.

They are planning a big business, and will furnish ice to all the towns on the Henderson Route and the M., H. & E. R. R. The citizens are delighted with the new company.

Dr. Chas. Lightfoot

Becoming A Favorite

After having been here only a short while, Dr. Chas. Lightfoot, a brother of Dr. Forrest Lightfoot, is winning many friends in Cloverport and is establishing a good practice. His mother has arrived to make her home here with him.

Miss Moorman Better.

The many friends of Miss Katherine

Moorman, of Louisville, will be glad to learn that she is improving. She has been ill several days at her home in Louisville.

Taking the Census.

Miss Blanch Jolly is busy taking the census in the Irvington-Bewleyville district. She made the highest per cent. in the census examination given by the county. Miss Jolly is quick and accurate, and along with those, she is agreeable at all times.

Successful Teacher.

Miss Dee Basham went to Greenville last Wednesday to spend the week end. Miss Basham is now teaching at Webster. She is most interested in her work and always has success with her schools.

Returns Home.

Mrs. Emma Stites Sippel and little daughter, Elizabeth, have returned to their home in Louisville, after a lengthy visit to relatives in Tennessee. Mrs. Sippel was accompanied home by her grandmother, Mrs. Owen.

Big Lamb Sale

The firm of Jenkins & Nall, of Vine Grove, has purchased 500 lambs from R. P. Glasscock to be delivered between now and July 1st. The price paid was $c per hundred.—Elizabethtown News.

Snow in Cloverport.

Monday snow fell in Cloverport—just a thin sheet was thrown over the streets that night, but that was unusual for April 19. Yesterday was damp and cold.

Goes to Newport.

W. B. Henderson is expected soon for a visit to relatives at Webster. Mr. Henderson has had the address of his paper changed from Danvers, Mass., to 78 Church street, Newport, R. I.

GLENDEANE GIRL WEDS IN OKLAHOMA.

Miss Arrie Robertson And Mr. John D. Work Marry--Wedding A Surprise To Kentucky Friends.

TAKE SOUTHERN BRIDAL TRIP.

In the presence of a few relatives yesterday afternoon, April 6, about 4:30, Rev. J. H. Boyett, of the local Baptist church, performed the ceremony which united in holy wedlock Miss Arrie Robertson, of Glendean, Ky., and Mr. John D. Work, of this city. Immediately after the nuptial the couple repaired to the Katy depot and departed on the Flyer for New Orleans, where they will spend a portion of their honeymoon. They will visit points in Kentucky before returning—some time in June.

The bride, who has become one of the most popular young ladies of this section, has been visiting here since last summer with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Fuller, during which time Miss Robertson made a host of friends, who all join in wishing the newly wedded pair an abundance of happiness.

The groom is an ambitious young man who has established a large trade in the cotton business, and who is well liked by all who know him.—Durant, Oklahoma paper.

The bride is the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robertson, of Glendean, and a cousin of C. V. Robertson, of Hardinsburg. She is one of the most popular teachers of this county, having taught several terms in her home neighborhood. Congratulations are extended to the lucky Oklahoman who has won such a prize in a life partner.

FRENCH'S SENSATION

"Nigger Snowball" a Winner--Old Time Show Boat Breaks the Monotony--Another Thursday.

French's Sensation put on a good show Monday night at this port. Really, in some respects, it was above the average, being clean and up-to-date.

The girls were fairly good-looking and had fresh wardrobes. One young woman—the girl in the picture frame—was very pretty and had a sweet voice that was minus of that "show-boat whine."

"Snow-ball," the coon, was the star, the clog dancer was clever, and the baby actress won the hearts of the audience.

A "perfectly good" show all right was French's.

Greater New York.

Thursday, tomorrow evening, the show boat "Greater New York," will be at this port. French's manager gave it advanced advertising and it promises to be "perfectly good."

Party Disappointed

The wreck on the L. H. & St. L. train disappointed a bunch of young people Monday. They started to the home of Mrs. John Nevitt at Basin Springs, where they were assured a splendid time and a good dinner. Those invited were: Miss Claycomb, of Louisville; Mrs. Nell Marshall, Miss Claudia Bandy, and Mrs. O. F. Brite.

Called To New York State

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Randall, of Louisville, were called to Narrowsburg, N. Y., to see her mother, Mrs. Farnall, who is critically ill.

Here Last Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rogers, of near Glendean, were in town last week shopping. Mr. Rogers says there will not be a big acreage of tobacco planted in his neighborhood this spring, but there will be a splendid quality.

Critically Ill.

Hardinsburg, April 19.—(Special).—R. A. Shellman, Ex-jailor of this county, is critically ill at his home on Fourth street. His death is expected at any time.

Large Sale

J. E. Munford, of Irvington, sold to Dowell & Ashcraft last week 40 head sheep and 25 lambs for $400.

DEATH COMES TO MORRIS BELKNAP.

Prominent Business Man Of Kentucky--Once A Candidate For Governor Of The State. FIFTY-THREE YEARS OF AGE.

Louisville, Ky., April 13.—Col. Morris B. Belnap, once the Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, and one of the most prominent business men in the state, died late today, aged fifty-three years.

The physicians believe that Col. Belnap contracted a blood disease, of which he died, while serving as lieutenant colonel of the First Kentucky regiment in Porto Rico during the Spanish American war. Mr. Belnap was a member of the Belnap Hardware company.

The funeral will be held on Friday at 3 o'clock at the house. The burial, at Cave Hill, will be private. The pall bearers will be Oscar Fenley, Cliff Rodes, John W. Price, William Heyburn, Rogers Smith, Helm Bruce, Col. Andrew Cowan and Judge Randolph Blaine.

Delighted With the West.

Mrs. Litha Ann Keenan has returned from a visit to relatives in Kansas and Oklahoma. She was delighted with her western trip and thinks that country is great.

Mr. Johnson Better.

Wm. Johnson, who got one of his shoulders hurt while working at the Henderson Route shops last week, is better. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Laslie.

FINE RIVERMAN

Is Capt. Jesse Singleton, Who Has Been Busy At This Port During The Last Two Weeks.

Monday morning the large tow boat, Dreddrick, left for Green River after spending ten days at this point loading six barges of logs.

The captain, Jesse A. Singleton, of Mauckport, Ind., made a number of good friends while in this city. He is a splendid river man and knows his business thoroughly. He had a crew of ten men and they work hard from morning until night. Capt. Singleton's stay here was fine for the merchants as he and his people lived high when it came to having good things to eat.

Mail Orders Given Best Attention

When ordering tickets from Macaulays Theatre, Louisville, write to Mr. Pope, and you may be assured that you will be given the best seats in the play house. Mr. Pope is most accommodating to strangers, and always takes an interest in giving each man his money's worth.

Funeral of Mr. Glasscock

The funeral took place today of the late Mr. George D. Glasscock, one of the oldest and most prominent farmers in this section of the country. Mr. Glasscock has been a life long Methodist, and also a Mason many years, and the funeral was in charge of McDaniel's Lodge, No. 815, F. & A. M., of which the deceased was a member at the time of his death.

Dr. Mather of Hardinsburg was in charge of the ceremonies and Rev. A. P. Lyon, Presiding Elder of the Elizabethtown District of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, conducted the services in the Church and preached the sermon after which the body was escorted to the Cemetery by a large body of Masons who assisted Dr. Mather in the rendering of the impressive ritual at the graveside.

A very large audience assembled to do honor to the memory of the deceased gentleman, who was widely respected as a good man.

McDaniels, April 14.

Suffer By Fire

The meat house of Ed. L. Pate burned early last Wednesday morning and the loss was $500. They lost 700 pounds of meat and several farming implements. Mr. and Mrs. Pate had accomplished so much on their farm during the last year and the fire was a great loss to them. The origin is unknown.

JULIUS NOLTE

Has Great Faith in Cloverport-- Expects a New Era and Thinks Its Beginning Is Here.

Julius Nolte, one of the leading merchants of this city, said to a representative of The News Monday morning that he thought that Cloverport was taking on new life. His expression was prompted by the great interest shown by Mayor Barry and other citizens in the business men's meeting Saturday morning.

He said prospects are better now than ever before for a good town and good business. The citizens are all striving to boost Cloverport instead of crying it down.

Dr. Forest Lightfoot Has Just Received New Machine

Last week the handsome new automobile that Dr. Forrest Lightfoot bought recently in Louisville arrived here and he has already put it into good play. Sunday Dr. Lightfoot and Mrs. Lightfoot and daughter, Jane, Miss Cooper, of Hawesville, and little Miss Mary McGavock took a spin over the pike to Hardinsburg where they were guests at dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bearl.

Dr. Lightfoot is an exceedingly busy man besides his medical practice, he has a large farming interest and he expects his machine to be a source of great convenience to him.

Aged Man Falls In Cellar And Fractures Collar Bone

Charles Casperke, Sr., eighty five years old, of Brandenburg, Ky., thought some one was trying to rob the cellar at the home of his son, Charles Casperke, Jr., manager of the Cumberland Telephone Company, on West front street Friday night, and cautiously opened the kitchen door to investigate. Mistaking the direction from which a light came he stepped forward and plunged headforemost into the cellar. The younger man had taken a light and gone to inspect a drainage pipe.

In the fall the aged man suffered a fracture of his collar bone, two bad cuts on the head, a dislocation of the thumb and less serious injuries. He was carried out of the cellar by his son and his wife, and Dr. E. N. Flynn was called to attend him. The Senior Mr. Casperke and wife are visiting the others. While his age is against him it is the opinion of Dr. Flynn that the injured man will recover.—Louisville Herald

THE OLD RELIABLE

Breckenridge Bank Makes Further Progress These Fine Spring Days

We are informed by the management of this rock-ribbed old institution that their deposits have increased more than $30,000 since the first of the year.

This is indeed an encouraging report and shows the confidence which so many years of conservative management have inspired in the people. They like to do business where they know they are safe.

The Board of Directors of this bank are substantial business men who are well known for their financial strength and integrity.

Mr. Pate Ill.

John W. Pate, of Hardinsburg, has been very ill for the last two weeks. His sons, J. P. Pate, R. L. Pate, of Henderson; A. A. Pate, of Kirk, and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Pate, of Clover Creek, were called to his bedside. Mr. Pate's friends regret to hear that he is ill.

As the News goes to press word is received of the death of Mr. Pate.

Goose Bone Hangs High.

Dear Mr. Babbage:—You will find enclosed $1 for another year's subscription to The News. All is well in Oklahoma, and the goose bone hangs high. Poor Uncle Joe did get a hard fall in Congress, but they haven't got your uncle so badly down but what he will be heard from again.

Yours respectfully,
Edgar Adkisson,
Redfork, Okla.
